:	Policy Sponsor:	Approval Date:
NIVERSITY	President	February 24, 2022
Institutional Data	Responsible Unit:	Amendments:
Access Policy	Office of the Provost and Vice-President Academic

A. Background & Purpose

The Institutional Data Access Policy extests acilitate access to institutional by University personnel (or employee)s for internal use and only for purposes necessary to fulfil work responsibilities. Institutional data is the decision making. The policy adheres to the following principles:

- 1. Authority and Ownership All institutional data is an institutional asset.
- 2. Governance and AccountabilityAs an institutional asset, data is governedthey Data Access Committee and in accordance withall federal and provincial legislation and Dalhousie policies;
- 3. Access Authorized decision makers and esignated employees have access to the data as required to perform their roles;
- 4. Value and Quality: Standardized and qualityntrolled data support strategic integration and decision-making as such on the university's master list

F.

- 2.4 The Data Steward may revoke delegation at any timed notify the Data Acces Committee chair, in writing of this revocation
- 2.5 If the Data Steward changes, the netheral Steward is responsible to confire legation and makenecessary changes through that DAccess Committee thair within one of assuming the position.
- 2.6 The Data Delegatemay not delegateaccess authority to someone else.
- 2.7 The delegation of access authority will be recorded on the Master List.