

STUDENT DECLARATION OF ABSENCE

From required classes, test, exams or other coursework

TO BE COMPLETED BY THE STUDENT

Dalhousie University recognizes that you may experience short-term physical or mental health conditions, or other extenuating circumstances that may affect your ability to attend required classes, tests, exams or submit other coursework.

You can use this form to report when you miss or are late for required class participation, tests, and exams, or other faculty, college or school-specific program work. You may not use this form for final coursework or exams, fieldwork (including work -integrated learning for credit), co-op work terms and internships, and skill labs.

You must review faculty, college, school, instructor-specific, or course-specific syllabi and guidelines, and work-integrated learning handbook policies that explain your responsibilities, the consequences, and how you might compensate for missing or being late for required class and coursework. If you have an accessibility plan that already allows for coursework deferrals or deadline extensions, you do not need to submit this form.

If you experience a short-term absence that is no longer than 3 consecutive days you must :

- x Notify your instructor by phone or email prior to the academic requirement deadline or scheduled time and;
- x Submit this form to your instructor, or other authorized person, by email, on-line through Brightspace, or in-person within three (3) days following your last day of absence.
